

AUTHOR: Charles I, King of England; John Gauden

TITLE: ΒΑΣΙΛΙΚΑ Basilika. The Works of King Charles the Martyr: With a Collection of Declarations, Treaties, and other Papers. The Second Edition. The First Part.

DATE: 1687

ESTC R6734

NOTES:

Not separately published; bound together with The Second Part.

Additional engraved title page reads “The Works of Charles I with His Life and Martyrdome”.

Attributed to King Charles, but partly authored by John Gauden (1605-1662), Bishop of Worcester:

As there is substantial historical and stylistic evidence to support both the authorship of Charles I and John Gauden, we are best served to read the King’s Book as a heteroglossic, collaborative royalist effort. (Daems and Nelson, 2006, p. 20)

This is a large volume (212 pages+) and the file may take some time to load.

Click here to view the full text:

Basilika. The Works of King Charles the Martyr. The First Part: FULL TEXT

Alternatively, and for faster loading, select a section of the text from the options below:

CONTENTS:

The Life of Charles I

Papers Concerning Church Government, Prayers Used by His Majesty, Messages for Peace Declarations, Letters, Speeches, The History of His Tryal and Death

TEXT SEARCH: Use the “Find” feature in the “Edit” menu of your browser to search for lexical items in this text.

The text uses some early modern spellings & conventions. Use “f” instead of “s” to search for “long s” (ſ).

Examples: fhort = short kindneffe = kindness

Exceptions: capital “S” and word final “s” (Saul, fupprefes, Sicknefs)

USE: This file may be downloaded and used for personal research. The PDF scans may be reproduced and used for non-commercial purposes only, with attribution to <https://discoursesofsuffering.org>.

